

Graduation Up-Date

All parents were sent an email from Mr. Moorthy on Monday, April 6th. It outlined information regarding Grade 12 students. It explained that all graduation activities have been postponed for the time being. Please refer to the email sent out on April 6th for complete information.

Capstone Information

A letter was sent home from our Capstone coordinators on April 8th with updated information regarding Capstone 12. Please refer to the letter and/or contact your teen's Capstone teacher for further details. Students are expected to continue their learning and complete their Capstone projects, though it is recognized some adjustments may need to be made to earn credits for Capstone 12 to graduate.

May 15: Projects submitted to Capstone teachers via Teams (date extended from original April 17 deadline)

May 25 - 29: Online sharing of project journey and outcomes with Capstone teacher and a small group of classmates via Teams (replacing the May 1 Capstone Fair)

COVID BC PSI Up-Dates

Education Planner BC has compiled a list of links to 25 BC public post-secondary institutions' websites where you can find current information about each institution's COVID-19 response. From this page [\[link\]](#) you are now able to check for updates from any member institution anytime you are looking for updated information.

Student Transcript Service (STS)

As of April 11th, 2020, 269 Grade 12s have authorized PSIs to receive their transcripts; 125 Grade 12s have not.

May 1, 2020 is the deadline to enter PSI Selections in order for all BC public institutions, Ontario University's Application Centre, U of Alberta, and U of Calgary to be able to pick up marks on May 4, 2020. Your second term marks were sent to the Ministry before Spring Break.

Students can continue making selections for the final months of this school year on the STS website.

July 10, 2020 is the deadline for students to have selected the institutions to receive transcripts in the late-July distribution. Students should be sure to include out of province and international institutions.

2020 PSI selections can be made at:

U of Alberta

Tuition Deposit Deadline

U of A has extended the deadline for applicants to pay their tuition deposit to June 1, 2020. Students are required to accept their offer and pay their tuition deposit to confirm their spot in their program, as well as to register in first year courses. Once the tuition deposit payment is reflected in Bear Tracks for Fall 2020, a student's registration will be activated within 3-5 business days.

Registration 101

U of A is still hosting online Registration 101 Workshops to assist students through the registration process. Please visit uab.ca/reg101 for more information.

More Questions?

U of A has added a frequently asked questions section to their website that students and their families may find helpful: FAQ section.

U of Toronto

The University of Toronto is committed to providing you with the most up-to-date information on admission processes and next step. U of T has posted resources on how the COVID-19 pandemic may shape the coming months and will be updating the FAQs regularly at this link.

All U of T teams are currently working offsite but there has been no impact on the processing of applications. You can continue to view your current application status on the Join U of T Applicant Portal, or the Engineering Applicant Portal. You are strongly encouraged to monitor these portals regularly for essential updates, including new FAQs and upcoming webinars for admitted students.

Meeting Offer Conditions

U of T realizes that many schools have not been able to offer the same instruction or grading as would normally be the case. They will be listening to what schools and school boards tell us about how graduation requirements may have been modified this year. A change in a school's grading process, or alternative methods of assessment used by a school or examination board, will not negatively affect an offer of admission.

If students are concerned about meeting specific conditions in their offer, know that U of T is committed to working with all admitted students who have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. U of T will exercise as much flexibility as possible to make sure students are not disadvantaged by circumstances beyond their control. Applicants and admitted students should contact the faculty or campus directly with questions or concerns

Dalhousie University

Dalhousie hosted a series of webinars at the end of March which addressed student questions and concerns regarding COVID-19 related changes to Dalhousie's application process. If you wanted to view the content of the webinar, select this LINK

Dalhousie is pleased to announce that they will be making their General Entrance Awards offers on time, meaning recipients will be notified of their award by April 15. Students will then have until June 1 to accept their award and confirm that they will be attending Dalhousie by paying their $200 admission deposit. Please note that they are only able to accept fee payments online until further notice, as Dalhousie's staff has transitioned to working remotely.

Dalhousie encourages students to visit their COVID-19 Applicant Information page regularly for the most up-to-date admissions information.
