Student Aide expectations:

1. The role of the Student Aide is first and foremost to work with the teacher in the class to support student learning. This would involve assisting individual students as they work on assignments and/or act in a mentorship role
2. A Student Aide may also assist the teacher with classroom organizational duties (eg. handing out textbooks, collating handouts, putting up posters or student work)
3. To attend and be punctual for every Student Aide block. Should a Student Aide be absent, it is expected that they communicate this absence to the teacher before it occurs.
4. A Student Aide should be at least one grade higher than the students they are working with.
5. A Student Aide should not:
 - a. Have access to the teacher’s computer account.
 - b. Have access to the teacher’s attendance record or confidential student information (through MyED, etc.).
 - c. Be assisting in the evaluation or assessment of other students. This includes not inputting other student’s marks.
 - d. Be used to photocopy teacher’s work.
 - e. Be used to supervise students without a staff member present.
